The Junior Class this year presented Our Miss Brooks, a three act comedy with plenty of teacher trouble. Miss Brooks' "escape" is dreaming about her vacation. She has travel folders on several Caribbean cruises, which she discusses with the athletic coach, who, it turns out, has a little sailboat and often visits such places.

Miss Brooks suddenly sees that he's "the man" for her. She's glad she isn't putting on the school play so she won't have to battle him for the use of the gym. Then the blow falls. The play is thrust on her.

Despite Miss Brooks' efforts to avoid conflict with the coach, a battle royal develops. The coach's star athlete, Ted, is about to give up the team to play the leading boy's role. The daughter of the school board president is determined to play opposite - until Miss Brooks - always fair - gives the part to Jane, an attractive little nobody. The principal is in a frenzy. Complications build up with an actor's being stricken with appendicitis on opening night. Fortunately, the coach steps in, takes over the part - and the curtain comes down on a rising curtain.

GOOD-BYE WHS

Another year has passed at Windsor High School. The year has been full of lots of work, yet lots of fun for the POW-WOW staff, as well as the student body. Some leave WHS not to return. To these students we wish good luck and good-bye. For the others, who will return after a summer's rest, we wish another year filled with fun and studies!

SIX STITCHES FOR EGO

The senior class presented for their play "Six Stitches for Ego." Dr. Bell used the principle of nursery school in running his "Bell School for Adults." The therapy used in his school included the Mad Room, the mud pan, work bench, painting, and musical instruments. Each student was allowed to release all his hostilities without causing any trouble. Dr. Bell's school was closed for a time, however. During this time, it became apparent that the school was not only good but also necessary. With the airplane crash, the sheet psychomotor drama, and the mud pan, the audience was entertained during the entire evening.

ATLANTIS: UNDER THE SEA

1970 JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM AND BANQUET

The banquet, which was in the grade school gym, started at 6:30. The tasty meal, which was prepared by the women of the Windsor Methodist Church and served by several boys and girls of the sophomore class, consisted of tomato juice, ham, baked potato, corn, tossed salad, iced tea, white cake, and ice cream.

Welcome to Atlantis: Under the Sea, the theme for this year's prom. As you enter the underwater city, you walk through a tunnel covered with sea moss and flowers. You have arrived in a city of Grecian ruins, columns, statues, and gardens. Fish, seaweed, shells, and fishnet add to the romantic atmosphere. The band, the "Atlantis," presented the music. The prom, which lasted from 8:30 to 11:30, proved to be an enjoyable evening for all.

Hezzy's Bowling Alley at Sullivan was the setting for the post-prom party. The activities included bowling, shooting pool, eating, playing pinball and having a good time.

THANK YOU, JUNIORS, FOR THE MEMORIES.
